

Advancing the care for patients with memory loss

Strategies for Internal Medicine and Primary Care

- Research update on Mild Cognitive Impairment and Alzheimer's disease
- Importance of early diagnosis and intervention
- Limitations of current monotherapies
- Multi-domain personalized approach to treatment
- Clinical practice of multi-domain treatment approaches and outcomes
- Getting started

When

Wednesday

May 29, 2019

6:30 PM - 9:30 PM

Where

The Keg Steakhouse
3065 W Chandler Blvd
Chandler, AZ 85226
(480) 940-1900

Presented by

Dr. Marwan Sabbagh, MD FAAN

Director of Cleveland Clinic Lou Ruvo Center for Brain Health

Dr. Sabbagh has dedicated his career to finding a cure for Alzheimer's and other age-related neurodegenerative diseases. He is a leading investigator for many prominent national Alzheimer's prevention and treatment trials. Dr. Sabbagh is on the editorial board for Journal of Alzheimer's Disease and BMC Neurology. He is now editor in chief of Neurology and Therapy. He has authored and co-authored more than 320 medical and scientific articles on Alzheimer's research. He has been recognized with numerous awards, including WestMarc Innovator Award, 2015; Fellow of the American Academy of Neurology, 2004; Arizona Business Journal, Healthcare Hero Finalist, 2004; Peter F Drucker Award co-recipient, 1998; and Travel Fellowship Award recipient, American Neurological Association, 1996.

- Undergraduate degree from the University of California, Berkeley
- Medical degree from the University of Arizona in Tucson
- Residency training in neurology at Baylor College of Medicine, Houston, Texas
- Fellowship in geriatric neurology and dementia at the University of California, San Diego School of Medicine

Reserve your spot: Email Tammy.Booze@SonoraQuest.com or contact your Sonora Quest Laboratories Account Manager by Monday, May 20, 2019